

Paul concludes the letter to the Romans with a doxology in which he praises 3 aspects of God's work & character.

- I. God is able to strengthen you (25a):
  - A. According to the gospel (v. 25b), which is to say,
  - B. According to the preaching about Jesus Christ (v. 25c), which is in accord with,
  - C. The revelation of the mystery (v. 25d):
    - 1. Which was kept secret for long ages (v. 25e).
    - 2. Which has now been disclosed (v. 26a).
    - 3. Which has now been made known (v. 26b).
      - a. to all nations (v. 26c).
      - b. through the OT (v. 26d).
      - c. according to the command of God (v. 26e).
      - d. to bring about the obedience that accompanies faith (v. 26f).
- II. God is the only wise God (v. 27a).
- III. God is worthy of all glory (v. 27b):
  - A. forever (v. 27c).
  - B. through Jesus Christ (v. 27d).

Paul concludes the letter to the Romans with a doxology in which he praises 3 aspects of God's work & character.

- I. God is able to strengthen you (25a):
  - A. According to the gospel (v. 25b), which is to say,
  - B. According to the preaching about Jesus Christ (v. 25c), which is in accord with,
  - C. The revelation of the mystery (v. 25d):
    - 1. Which was kept secret for long ages (v. 25e).
    - 2. Which has now been disclosed (v. 26a).
    - 3. Which has now been made known (v. 26b).
      - a. to all nations (v. 26c).
      - b. through the OT (v. 26d).
      - c. according to the command of God (v. 26e).
      - d. to bring about the obedience that accompanies faith (v. 26f).
- II. God is the only wise God (v. 27a).
- III. God is worthy of all glory (v. 27b):
  - A. forever (v. 27c).
  - B. through Jesus Christ (v. 27d).