

Sermon #147 — Romans Series

Title: TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Text: Romans 14:10-12

Subject: The Judgment Seat of Christ

Date: Sunday Morning — June 10, 2018

Reading: Daniel 7:9-27

(Daniel 7:9-14) “I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. (10) A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. (11) I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. (12) As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. (13) I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. (14) And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

(Daniel 7:27) “And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.”

INTRODUCTION

Romans 14:10 confronts us with TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT. That is the title of my message — TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT (Romans 14:10).

Here’s the first question. — “Why dost thou judge thy brother?” — Why are we so anxious to set in

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

judgment over one another? What do we try to rule the lives of other believers? Why do we try to measure others by our own yardstick? There is only one answer — Pride!

This first question is obviously intended as a rebuke to all who castigate, condemn, hold in suspicion, and think and speak ill of God's saints who do things they look upon as evil. — Not things God says are evil. — Not things forbidden in the Word of God. — But things they look upon as evil. — Matters of indifference!

- The Things They Wear
- The Food They Eat
- The Things They Drink
- The Things They Use (Tobacco — Alcohol)
- The Entertainment They Enjoy

You and I do not have the right to determine how others should live, what they should do, or what they should not do. We have no right to assume lordship over any of God's people. — Why would you want to?

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

Here's the second question. — “Why dost thou set at nought thy brother?” — This question is primarily addressed to stronger, more mature believers. Those who are stronger still have great weaknesses. And one of the greatest weaknesses of knowledge and experience is that it tends to swell the heart with pride and a sense of superiority. Here the Spirit of God teaches us never to look down upon those children of God who think and act like weaker children.

Our business is to cast the gospel net and gather in the fish. It is not our business to separate the good fish from the bad. We don't know the one from the other. Our business is to sow the good seed of the gospel. As we do, Satan will sow tares in the field with the wheat. It is not our business to separate the wheat from the tares. That is God's work, not ours. We don't know one from the other. Our business is to seek the Lord's sheep. Throw open the gate of the sheepfold and gather in all who will come in. It is not our business to separate the sheep from the goats.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

That is God's business, not ours. We have no way of knowing sheep from goats.

The Lord of the harvest separates the wheat from the tares. It is he who separates the good fish from the bad. And it is he who separates the sheep from the goats. That is his work and his alone.

- He does the winnowing work by the preaching of the gospel.
- He does the work by his good providence.
- And he will do the work of separation on the Day of Judgment.

That brings me to the solemn fact asserted in our text. — “For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.” — What a solemn fact! Let us ever live in anticipation of that great day!

JUDGMENT SURE

Of this you can be sure — In that great day every one of us will receive from the Holy Lord God exactly what we deserve.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

(Hebrews 9:27) “It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment!”

Soon, very soon, we must die. At God’s appointed hour, in God’s appointed way, by God’s appointed means, you and I will soon die. But death is only the ending of time and the everlasting dawning of eternity — Eternity! — “Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord!” Most people are terrified of death and judgment and eternity, and have reason to be. But God’s saints have no reason to fear that certain end of all men.

MARTYRS IN CHINA

During the early days of the communist revolution in China under Mao Tse-tung in the 1930s many missionaries were brutally slaughtered, some shot, others beheaded. Among them was man named J. W. Vinson. A young Chinese girl who managed to escape from the the bloodbath related the incident.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

“Are you afraid?” the murders asked Vinson as they menacingly waved a gun in front of him. — “No,” he replied with complete assurance. “If you shoot, I go straight to heaven.” — His decapitated body was found sometime later.

That event inspired another missionary, E. H. Hamilton, to write this poem.

Afraid? — Of what?
To feel the spirit’s glad release?
To pass from pain to perfect peace,
The strife and strain of life to cease?
Afraid? — Of that?

Afraid? — Of what?
Afraid to see the Savior’s face,
To hear His welcome and to trace
The glory gleam from wounds of grace,
Afraid? — Of that?

Afraid? — Of what?
A flash – a crash – a pierced heart;

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

Brief darkness – Light – O Heaven’s art!

A wound of His a counterpart!

Afraid? — Of that?

Afraid? — Of what?

To enter into Heaven’s rest,

And yet to serve the Master blessed?

From service good to service best?

Afraid? — Of that?

Afraid? — Of what?

To do by death what life could not –

Baptize with blood a stony plot,

Till souls shall blossom from the spot?

Afraid? — Of that?”

“After this” — Yes, there is an “after this!” — “After this the judgment.” That’s what I want to talk to you about this morning. — “AFTER THIS THE JUDGMENT”

Because the righteous Lord loves righteousness, he always deals with all moral creatures upon the basis of strict righteousness, both in the execution of his wrath and in the exercise of his grace (Psalm 11:7). The Judge of all the earth must and shall do right (Genesis 18:25). The Judgment Seat of Christ is described for us in very simple, clear, pointed words in our text.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

(Romans 14:10-12) “But why dost thou judge thy brother? Or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. (11) For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. (12) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.”

If God sends you to hell, he will do so upon the grounds of absolute, unquestionable righteousness. If he is pleased to bring you into the everlasting bliss and glory of heaven, he will do so upon the grounds of absolute, unquestionable righteousness. The holy Lord God will never violate, or even bend his holy law. He will not compromise his justice. And when he gets done with us, every creature in heaven, earth, and hell will declare, “Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments” (Revelation 16:7).

Romans 14:10-12

The Spirit of God gives us two other descriptions of the Judgment Seat of Christ in 2 Corinthians 5 and Revelation 20.

(2 Corinthians 5:10-11) “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. (11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.”

(Revelation 20:11-15) “And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. (12) And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the

Romans 14:10-12

books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. (13) And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. (14) And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. (15) And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

GREAT WHITE THRONE

Here God the Holy Ghost describes that awesome, glorious throne of judgment before which we all must appear in the last day.

- It is called “a great white throne,” to set forth the power, holiness, and sovereignty of the one who sits upon it.
- It is called “great” because it is the throne of the omnipotent God.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- It is called “white” because it is pure, spotless, righteous, and just. Nothing proceeds from this throne but justice and truth.
- It is called a “throne” because the Judge who sits upon it, before whom we all must stand, is the holy, sovereign Lord God. — It is “Christ who died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.”

Proposition: In the last day, when time shall be no more, we all must appear before the august, great, white throne to be judged of God, to be judged according to the strict and exact righteousness and justice of the thrice holy God!

Yet, while the Word of God constantly warns the wicked of the terror of divine judgment and the everlasting wrath of God, the Day of Judgment is never described as a terror to the believer, or even a thing to be dreaded by us. Rather, for the believer the Day of Judgment is always set forth as a matter of anticipated joy and glory.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

On this earth God's saints are constantly misjudged. His servants are maligned and slandered by reprobate men. But in that last great day, God almighty will vindicate his people and he will vindicate his servants (1 Corinthians 4:3-5).

(1 Corinthians 4:3-5) “But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man’s judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. (4) For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. (5) Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.”

I am not dreading that day. I’m looking forward to it! And I do so with peace. If, as a believer, a sinner saved by God’s free and sovereign grace, through the sin-atoning blood and perfect righteousness of the Lord Jesus Christ, you understand what the Bible says about that great day,

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

you will look forward to it too. With those things in mind, let's see what the Bible teaches about "the judgment seat of Christ."

Divisions: I do not claim to be an expert on prophetic matters. But I do know that there are five things clearly revealed in the Word of God about things to come. I want to talk to you now about those five things.

1. The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again.
2. When Christ comes again there will be a great general resurrection of all who have lived upon the earth.
3. We must all be judged by God according to the record of our works.
4. Those who are found to be perfectly righteous before God shall enter into eternal life and everlasting glory with Christ.
5. All who are found to be guilty of sin shall be cast into the lake of fire, where they must suffer the unmitigated wrath of God forever.

A GOSPEL REVELATION

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

1st — Here is a gospel revelation — The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again. Do not concern yourself about the signs of the times and those things that men imagine are indications of the last days. There is very little, if anything, of spiritual value to be gained by studying all the books ever written on prophetic issues. They all have to be rewritten as soon as the predicted events have failed to come to pass. We are never commanded to look for signs of our Lord's coming. We are commanded to be looking for him to come. Get this one blessed fact fixed in your mind — Jesus Christ, our Lord, our Savior, the Son of God, is coming again!

The Son of God is personally coming again to this earth.

(Acts 1:9-11) “And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

apparel; Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.”

That very same God-man who was born at Bethlehem who lived as our Representative and died as our sin-atonement Substitute on the cross is coming to this earth again.

- He said, “I will come again” (John 14:3).
- The Apostle Paul wrote, “The Lord himself shall descend from heaven” (1 Thessalonians 4:16).
- He said, “The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven” (2 Thessalonians 1:7).

“I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.” (Job 19:25-27)

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- He came once in weakness. He is coming again in power!
- He came once in humiliation. He is coming again in glory!
- He came once to be despised. He is coming again to be admired!
- He came once to suffer. He is coming again to conquer!

The second coming of Christ will be sudden, unannounced, unexpected, and climatic. — “The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night” (1 Thessalonians 5:2). — Our Lord said, “I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee” (Revelation 3:3). The Lord does not tell us to look for the tribulation, or the regathering of Israel, or the rebuilding of a Jewish temple. He tells us to look for him! If you look for signs, and times, and seasons, you will be shocked when Christ comes. The only thing mentioned in this Book that will announce the Lord’s coming will be

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

“a shout, the voice of the archangel and the trump of God” (1 Thessalonians 4:16).

NOTE: No man knows the day or hour of our Lord’s coming; and that is best (Matthew 24:36; Mark 13:32; Acts 1:7). If we knew the day or hour, we would become irresponsible and negligent with regard to our daily duties. Do not seek to know when Christ is coming. Be content with his promise and wait for his appearing.

Our Lord Jesus may appear at any moment. — “Behold, he cometh!” (Revelation 1:7) Look for him upon the tiptoe of faith and expectation. All will be taken by surprise except those who are expecting him to appear. Like those Thessalonians who believed God, we must constantly “wait for his Son from heaven” (1 Thessalonians 1:10). Faith is ever “looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ” (Titus 2:13). This much I know...

- Christ is coming now!
- Soon he shall appear.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- When the Son of God appears, he will bring with him a crown of righteousness, immortality, and life for all who love him and look for his appearing.

“Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.” (2 Timothy 4:8)

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. (James 1:12)

A GENERAL RESURRECTION

2nd — When Christ comes, there will be a great, general resurrection of all who have ever lived upon the earth.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

“And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works” (Revelation 20:13)

“Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation” (John 5:28-29).

I do not offer any argument or proof for what I am preaching. I am simply declaring to you the plain facts, as they are revealed in Holy Scripture. Those who rebel against them, mock them, despise them, or ignore them do so to their own eternal ruin. But I assure you that the Son of God is coming again; and when he comes there will be a resurrection of the dead.

*First, all who have died in faith shall be raised from the grave. All will be raised. But the saints of

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

God will have distinct priority in the resurrection. “The dead in Christ shall rise first.” The bodies of God’s saints shall be raised from their graves and reunited with their souls.

(1 Thessalonians 4:13-18) “But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. (14) For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. (15) For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. (16) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: (17) Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. (18) Wherefore comfort one another with these words.”

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- All the Old Testament Saints!
- All the Martyrs!
- All Who Sleep in Jesus!

Then, immediately after the sleeping saints arise, all believers living upon the earth shall be changed and caught up to meet the Lord in the air.

(1 Corinthians 15:51-58) “Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, (52) In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (53) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. (54) So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. (55) O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? (56) The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. (57) But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (58) Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.”

Romans 14:10-12

As our Lord descends in the brilliant glory of his second advent, we shall go out to meet him and return with him, as he comes with all his saints to burn up the earth, destroy the wicked, and make all things new. — What a day that will be!

Then, after the Son of God has gathered all the ransomed bodies of his elect from the earth, after he has destroyed all the wicked with the brightness of his coming, all the wicked shall be raised. Yes, there is a resurrection for the wicked too. But, for you who believe not, there is no music in the resurrection. The Lord himself shall issue a summons that you cannot resist. You will stand in terror before him whose grace you have despised, against whom you have sinned!

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

Your body and soul now united in sin shall be united in horror! I have no word of comfort for you who will not bow to the claims of Christ. If you die without Christ, you die without hope and without peace! Your resurrection shall be a resurrection of damnation!

A GREAT RECKONING

3rd — Immediately after the resurrection, we must all be judged by God according to the record of our works.

(Romans 14:10-12) “We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. (11) For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. (12) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

(2 Corinthians 5:10-11) “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. (11) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.”

(Hebrews 9:27) “And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.”

(Revelation 20:12-13) “And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. (13) And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.”

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

THE JUDGE — The Judge before whom we must stand is the God-man, whom we have crucified! The great white throne of judgment is twice called “the judgment seat of Christ” (Romans 14:10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:10-11) because the Judge before whom we must soon stand is the Lord Jesus Christ.

“For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son.” (John 5:22)

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.” (Acts 17:31)

THE BOOKS — We will be judged out of the books, according to the record of God’s strict justice. When the books are opened, what shocks of terror will seize the hearts and souls of those who have no righteousness and no atonement before the holy Lord God!

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

With the opening of the books, every crime, every offense, every sin you have ever committed, in mind, in heart, and in deed shall be exposed! This is what Daniel saw in his prophetic vision. — “Judgment was set; and the books were opened” (7:10)

I realize that this is figurative language. God does not need books to remember man’s sins. However, as John Gill wrote, “this judgment out of the books, and according to works, is designed to show with what accuracy and exactness, with what justice and equity, it will be executed, in allusion to statute-books in courts of judicature”.

In the Scriptures God is often represented as writing and keeping books. And according to these books we all shall be judged. — What are the books?

1. The Book of Divine Omniscience (Malachi 3:5)
2. The Book of Divine Remembrance (Malachi 3:16)
3. The Book of Creation (Romans 1:18-20)
4. The Book of God’s Providence (Romans 2:4-5)

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

5. The Book of God's Holy Law (Romans 2:12) — This book of the law has two tables. The first table contains all the sins of men against God (Exodus. 20:3-11). The second table contains all the sins of men against one another (Exodus 20:12-17).
6. The Book of the Gospel (Romans 2:16)
7. The Book of Conscience (Romans 2:15)

ANOTHER BOOK — But, blessed be God, there are some against whom no crimes, no sins, no offenses can be found, not even by the omniscient eye of God himself! — “In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve” (Jeremiah 50:20).

Their names are found in another book, a book which God himself wrote and sealed before the worlds were made. IT IS THE BOOK OF LIFE!

1. In this book there is a record of Divine Election.

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

2. In this book there is the name of a Divine Surety — Jesus Christ the Lord!
3. In this book there is a record of Perfect Righteousness (Jeremiah. 23:6 cf 33:16).

(Jeremiah 23:6) “In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

(Jeremiah 33:16) “In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.”

4. In this book there is a record of Complete Satisfaction — Blood Atonement.
5. In this book there is the promise of Eternal Life.

The question is often raised, “Will God judge his elect for their sins and failures, committed after they were saved and expose them in the day of judgment?” — The only reason that question is ever

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

raised is because many try to retain the threat and fear of the Roman doctrine of purgatory, by which they hope to hold over God's saints the whip and terror of the law.

Child of God, hear me well. There is absolutely no sense in which you who trust the Lord Jesus Christ shall ever be made to pay for your sins!

- Our sins were imputed to Christ and shall never be imputed to us again (Romans 4:8).
- Christ paid our debt to God's law and justice; and God will never require us to pay.
- God who has blotted out our transgressions will never write them in the book again.
- He who covered our sins will never uncover them!
- The perfect righteousness of Christ has been made ours and we are made the righteousness of God in him!
- On the Day of Judgment, God's elect are never represented as having done any evil, but only good (Matthew 25:31-40).

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- The Day of Judgment will be a day of glory and bliss for Christ and his people, not a day of mourning and sorrow. — It will be a marriage supper! — Christ will glory in Church! — God will display the glory of his grace in us! — We will glory in our God!

A GLORIOUS REWARD

4th — Those who are found perfectly righteous, righteous according to the records of God himself, shall enter into eternal life and inherit everlasting glory with Christ. — They that have done good, nothing but good, perfect good, without any spot of sin, wrinkle of iniquity, or trace of transgression, shall enter into everlasting life. It is written — “He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still” (Revelation 22:11).

Who are these perfectly righteous ones?

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

- None by Nature and None by Works of Their Own!
- All God's Elect!
- All the Redeemed!
- All the Called!
- All the Justified!
- All Who Trust the Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:1, 32-34).

(Romans 8:1) “There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.”

(Romans 8:32-34) “He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? (33) Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. (34) Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.”

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

Though there shall be degrees of punishment for the wicked in hell because there are degrees of wickedness, there shall be no degrees of reward and glory among the saints in heaven because there are no degrees of redemption and righteousness.

- Heaven was earned and purchased for all God's elect by Christ.
- We were predestined to obtain our inheritance from eternity (Ephesians 1:11).
- Christ has taken possession of heaven's glory as our forerunner (Hebrews 6:20).
- We are heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ (Romans 8:17).
- Our Savior gave all the glory he earned as our Mediator to all his elect (John 17:5,20).
- In Christ every believer is worthy of heaven's glory (Colossians 1:12).
- Glorification is but the consummation of salvation. And salvation is by grace alone!

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT

Romans 14:10-12

That means that no part of heaven's bliss and glory is the reward of our works, but all is the reward of God's free grace in Christ! All spiritual blessings are ours from eternity in Christ (Ephesians 1:3). And that with which God blessed us in Christ before the world began, he will not take from us when this world is no more (Romans 11:29). God will do all that is necessary to bring us to Heaven and when we get there he will say to us "well done good and faithful servant!"

A GRAND RESTITUTION

5th — I must warn you who are yet without Christ, if you will not trust Christ you must be forever damned! All who are found guilty of sin in that great and terrible Day of Judgment shall be cast into the lake of fire and there be made to suffer the unmitigated wrath of almighty God forever!

One by one the Lord God will call you before his throne and judge you. As he says to you, "Depart ye cursed!” He will say to his holy angels, “Take him! Bind him! Cast him into outer darkness!”

- There will be no mercy for you!
- There will be no pity for you!
- There will be no sorrow for you!
- There will be no hope for you!
- There will be no end for you!

To hell you deserve to go! To hell you must go! To hell you will go! Unless you flee to Christ and take refuge in him, in that great day the wrath of God shall seize you and destroy you forever! I beseech you now, by the mercies of God, be reconciled to God by trusting his darling Son! — “Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men!” Come to Christ now! — ETERNITY IS BEFORE YOU!

- Behold his infinite love (2 Corinthians 5:14-15).
- Behold his finished atonement (2 Corinthians 5:21).
- Behold his amazing, almighty, saving grace (2 Corinthians 5:17-21).

TWO QUESTIONS AND A FACT*Romans 14:10-12*

(2 Corinthians 5:14-21) “For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: (15) And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. (16) Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. (17) Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (18) And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; (19) To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. (20) Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God. (21) For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.”

Then, and not until then, there shall be a grand restitution of all things to God (Acts 3:21).

Application: In that great and terrible day I hope to be found in Christ, not having my own righteousness, but having his righteousness! How will it be for you in that day.
