

Psalm 119:17-24 - גימל - Direct Me With Your Word

Introduction

(Philippians 2:5; 2 Corinthians 3:18; 2 Corinthians 4:4)

Jesus' Perspective

Verse 17: Deal Bountifully

(Mark 10:45)

The idea of to repay,

The idea of being weaned

The idea of - to ripen, to bear fruit.

The Christian's Perspective

Verse 17: Deal Bountifully

ARE YOU maturing in your understanding of the Gospel?

(Hebrews 5:12-14; 1 Peter 2:1-3)

Jesus' Perspective

Verse 18: Open My eyes

Verse 19: I am a stranger in the earth;

(Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23)

Verse 20: My soul breaks

The Christian's Perspective

Verse 18: Open my eyes,

(1 Corinthians 2:13; John 14:26)

Verse 19: I am a stranger in the earth;
(2 Peter 2:7-9)

Verse 20: My soul breaks
(Psalm 42:1; Psalm 63:1)

Jesus' Perspective

Verse 21-22 Remove from Me reproach and contempt,
(Matthew 27:39-44 NKJV)

Verse 23: Princes also sit and speak against Me,

Verse 24: Your testimonies also are My delight And My counselors.

The Christian's Perspective

Verse 21- 22 Remove from me reproach and contempt,
(1 Peter 4:14-16)

Verse 23: Princes also sit and speak against me
(Hebrews 12:3; Matthew 5:11)

Verse 24: Your testimonies also are my delight and my counselors.
(Luke 10:38-42)

Conclusion

Homework; read the next section Psalm 119:25-32, from Jesus' perspective. What do you discover about Jesus' thinking? Do you find a reference to the Gospel?