

“Confidence from a Clear Conscience”

2 Corinthians 1:12-14

Paul defended himself from the attacks of his critics by appealing to the highest human court: his own conscience. Paul’s conscience was . . .

- I. Clear from _____ (12)
 - A. Before the _____
 - B. Before the _____
- II. Clear from _____ (13-14a)
- III. Clear from _____ (14b)

To gain the confidence of a clear conscience . . .

1. Be _____ to God in salvation (Heb 9:14, 10:22)
2. Be _____ to others in fellowship (1 John 1)
