Where are You?

1. Challenged by the Lie
2. Captive to the Lie
3. Confronted by the Truth

Psalter 68 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 31

Doxology (Psalter 196)

Benediction

1. What are three ways in which Satan challenges humanity to believe the lie as seen in our passage?

2. What are four ways in which we can see ourselves being taken captive by the lie?

3. In what ways does God confront us with the truth?

4. How is the provision of the seed of the woman our only hope in overcoming the lie?

Reflection: Where are you? Are you believing the lie? Are you following the truth?

(Lord's Day 29)

Feasting on Christ in Communion

1. What bread and wine are
2. What bread and wine mean
3. What bread and wine do

Psalter 163 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 204

Doxology (Psalter 197)

Benediction

1. Why is it important that we understand what the bread and wine are at the Lord's Supper?
2. How did the following groups understand the bread and wine wrongly:
 - a. Roman Catholics
 - b. Lutherans
 - c. Zwinglians
3. What two key understandings do Calvin and our Heidelberg Catechism rightly bring to the question of what the bread and wine are in Communion?
 - a.
 - b.
4. How do believers partake of spiritual communion with Christ? How do they receive the fullness of Christ by means of the bread and wine?
5. What did Calvin mean when he said that union with Christ in the Lord's Supper can better be experienced than explained?
6. How does the Holy Spirit work through the Lord's Table to pry our fingers loose from sin and this world, and to fill our hands with the riches of Christ crucified and exalted?
7. How does the Holy Spirit use the bread and wine in the Holy Supper to grow our assurance of faith as believers? Specifically, what two truths does He assure us of?
8. How is the Lord's Supper a foretaste of heaven?
