

That the next generation would know

PSALM 78:1–8

80 YEARS

God calls us to live right now, this very moment, in light of the many generations that will come after us.

Psalm 78:1–8

1. If we are going to live with the coming generations in mind, then we need to know what target we are aiming at for our children.

Psalm 78:1–8

1. If we are going to live with the coming generations in mind, then we need to know what target we are aiming at for our children.
2. To live in light of eternity with our great-great-great-grandchildren in mind, we need to look beyond the right now and into the generations of the future.

“God loves our children & grandchildren more than we do, and He will answer our prayers according to His plans in His timing.”

Psalm 78:1–8

1. If we are going to live with the coming generations in mind, then we need to know what target we are aiming at for our children.
2. To live in light of eternity with our great-great-great-grandchildren in mind, we need to look beyond the right now and into the generations of the future.
3. To live in light of eternity we need to actually “speak” the things of God to the next generation.

“For the word of the cross is folly
to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved
it is the power of God.”
