

ISAIAH

The Holy One of Israel

Comfort for God's Exiles: "The Glory of the Lord Shall Be Revealed"

Behold! The Success of My Servant

Isaiah 52:13-15

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty Exalted God, you are indeed wise in all your bidding. You are high and lifted up and shall be exalted for all eternity. Thank you for your Word this morning, O LORD. Thank you for reminding us of our sin and need for a Savior. Thank you for your wise plan to so love the world that you gave your only Son to be a sacrifice for our sin. We confess this morning, Lord, our constant veering and deviating from your clear teaching in Scripture. We so often seek our own glory in the cross instead of yours. We are so apt to think lightly of our sin and wrongly assume our ability "to do better" is what you want instead of laying down our life at the foot of the cross and trusting your work on our behalf. Grant your Spirit to come this morning and work sure hope in heaven, confident faith in Christ and abounding love for the saints in us and through us this morning as we carefully hear and receive your Word for us this morning. Amen & Amen.

OUTLINE

1. The Servant's Exaltation (52:13-15)
2. The Servant's Humiliation (53:1-3)
3. The Servant's Propitiation (53:4-6)
4. The Servant's Volition (53:7-9)
5. The Servant's Dominion (53:10-12)

Central Textual Truth

Isaiah wanted God's people grow in their trust of the Servant.

Central Sermon Aim

I want SGBC to grow in their trust of Christ.