The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
The God of my strength, in whom I will trust; my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge;
my Savior, You save me from violence.
I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised;
so shall I be saved from my enemies.

2 Samuel 22:2-4

WLC Q. 127: What is the honor that inferiors owe to their superiors? A. The honor which inferiors owe to their superiors is, all due reverence in heart, word, and behavior; prayer and thanksgiving for them; imitation of their virtues and graces; willing obedience to their lawful commands and counsels; due submission to their corrections; fidelity to, defence and maintenance of their persons and authority, according to their several ranks, and the nature of their places; bearing with their infirmities, and covering them in love, that so they may be an honor to them and to their government.

- I. We offer six prayers for the king
 - a. That God would hear his prayer
 - b. That God would protect him
 - c. That God would strengthen him through the means of grace
 - d. That God would be pleased with his service
 - e. That God would give him fulfillment
 - f. That God would answer his prayers
- II. We are encouraged that the Lord saves his anointed king

WLC Q. 145: What are the sins forbidden in the ninth commandment? A. The sins forbidden in the ninth commandment are, all prejudicing the truth, and the good name of our neighbors, as well as our own (2 Samuel 1:9-10), especially in public judicature; giving false evidence; suborning false witnesses; wittingly appearing and pleading for an evil cause; out-facing and overbearing the truth; passing unjust sentence; calling evil good, and good evil; rewarding the wicked according to the work of the righteous, and the righteous according to the work of the wicked; forgery; concealing the truth; undue silence in a just cause, and holding our peace when iniquity calleth for either a reproof from ourselves, or complaint to others; speaking the truth unseasonably, or maliciously to a wrong end, or perverting it to a wrong meaning, or in doubtful and equivocal expressions, to the prejudice of truth or justice; speaking untruth, lying, slandering, backbiting, detracting, tale-bearing, whispering, scoffing, reviling, rash, harsh, and partial censuring; misconstructing intentions, words, and actions; ...
