

The Light of the Blessed

This 14th stanza of the 119th Psalm is headed by the Hebrew letter Nun. One might remember the OT leader of Israel named _____, whose father was Nun (Num. 13.8). Joshua's father is referred to in Scripture _____ times. Nun is used by the Psalmist as a verb in shall be continued (Psa. 72.17). This section of Psalm 119 contains one of the most memorable passages in the Psalms (Psa. 119.105).

In this section, the Psalmist is testifying that the Truths of Scriptures _____ his entire being despite the _____ that exists. The Light of Scripture directs his decisions and responses unto the very _____.

Note the following references:

- * My _____, my path (v.105)
- * My _____ (v. 107, 109)
- * My _____ (v. 108)
- * My soul, my _____ (v. 109)
- * My _____ (v. 110)
- * An [my] _____, my heart (v. 111)
- * Mine _____ (v. 112)

1) A _____ to Acknowledge the Word because of its _____
(v. 105-106)

In ancient times, night travel was extremely _____ and _____ because of the lack of _____. The Word of God is likened to the _____ that _____ the step taken and an _____ to the path.

There is NO OTHER capable _____. God has a direct pathway for _____ His people. This direction allowed David to have great _____. The promises of God would all be performed.

David could say with great certainty that he had _____ and would maintain each of those vows. David recognized the glorious truth that God is more than _____.

2) A _____ to Accept the Word because of its _____
(v. 107–110)

_____ was again present in David's life. It had become a very present _____ (v. 67, 71, 92). Yet, he resolved to be quickened by the _____ of the Word of God. When a believer allows sin to _____ in their life, they will _____ to be _____ to the Spirit of God (Eph. 5.18). Only by _____ seeking the throne of grace will confession bring about the restoration of fellowship with God.

The result of the restoration of fellowship is the presence of two specific petitions:

- * _____... the freewill offerings of my mouth.
- * _____ me thy judgments.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit (13) Then will I teach transgressors thy way; and sinners shall be converted unto thee. (Psa. 51.12-13)

David's walk in the Word of God was one that the world sees as _____. Yet, he saw the power of the Word as the only _____ and _____ path to take in life (Prov. 3.5-6) Though snares were laid, he did not _____ from the path that was illuminated by Scriptures.

3) A _____ to Attend to the Word because of its _____
(v. 111-112)

David had previously testified to the wonderful results that come from a life that is committed to obeying the Word of God: clear _____ (v. 105), _____ (v. 110). Yet, two additional results are concluded with:

- * A Joyous _____
- * A _____ End

The keeping of the Truths of Scripture is a _____ unto itself. They bring a blessing _____ and in the _____ which is to come.

The resulting effect of our lamp and light is the spiritual _____ to obey the Word of God despite a world fraught with _____ (Phil. 2.13).