

C O R N E R S T O N E
B A P T I S T C H U R C H

“Carpe Aeternitatum!”

1 John 2:15-17

I. John warns his readers against setting their _____ on this world (2:15a).

- a. Those who love the world do not have the love of the _____ in them (2:15b).
- b. All that _____ out of the world’s system of thinking did not come from God and is opposed to God (2:16).

II. John clarifies his meaning of “love of the world” through three phrases (2:16):

- a. Lust of the _____ speaks to human cravings.
- b. Lust of the _____ speaks to the human desire for acquisition.

Colossians 3:5

- c. Pride of _____ speaks to human desire for security, standing, and recognition.

2 Kings 20:12-19; Galatians 6:14; Psalm 34

III. John seeks to lift his readers’ eyes to a _____ goal (2:17):

- a. One cause of rejecting the lusts of the world is that they _____ and are passing away (2:17a).
- b. The one doing the will of God _____ into eternity (2:17b).