The Terminology of Psalm 119

Law (Torah, general word for teaching and direction from the revelation of God)

Precepts (detailed instruction of One who cares about details like an overseer)

Statutes (having in it the idea of something engraved or cut into stone, it is a standard that is intended last)

Rules (an authoritative decision from an All-Wise Judge that provides a standard of righteousness before Him and fair dealings between man and man. It may also be rendered judgments and ordinances)

Word (the most general term, that speaks to the all-embracing truth of God in any form, either command or promise; revealed truth personally spoken by God)
