

“Coming Persecution” (Luke 21:12-24)

Whatever hardships we may face, we can be sure that God is with us.

1. Persecution provides an opportunity to testify to our faith (21:12-15).

- Prior to the time of the end, God’s people should expect persecution (21:12).
- By depending on Jesus, God’s people will have the words needed to testify about Him (21:13-15).

2. Persecution makes it necessary to trust God’s promises (21:16-19).

- Persecution will include extreme measures such as betrayal, hatred, and even execution (21:16-17).
- Persecution cannot interfere with God’s ultimate provision (21:18-19).

3. Persecution leads up to the fulfillment of God’s plan for the nations (21:20-24).

- The warnings of scripture, including the desolation of Jerusalem, must be fulfilled before the return of Christ (21:20-22).
- The times of the Gentiles, including the domination of Jerusalem, must be fulfilled before the return of Christ (21:23-24).
