SUNDAY EVENING

1. Describe how Romans 12 is kind of the dividing point for the book. Describe what comes before it and follows after.
2. What are the three imperatives or exhortations in vv. 1-2?
3. To whom is Paul speaking here? Describe what Paul means by the mercies of God.
4. Give an example of what presenting our body as a living sacrifice to God would look like.
5. What does Paul mean here by the word "bodies"? Recall the example of the love of God and how this was shown in actual deed.
6. What must be said of one who has made a confession and does not live in this way as Paul sets before us?
7. What does Paul mean by the negative, do not be conformed to this world?
8. Why does Paul speak about the mind rather than the emotions or heart?
9. Who does this work of change in the lives of the believer?
10. How long does this process of change take?
