1. _____ is a terrifying and certain reality for those who reject the Lord.
- a. When God's time for judgment has come, the wicked have no _____ against it.
- b. God's judgment is an indictment of _____ who have not been faithful to their calling.
- c. God's judgment calls forth deep _____ and lament.
2. Through the prophet Zechariah, the Messiah is put forth as pasturing the _____ that was doomed for slaughter.
- a. The Lord was _____ to His people even when they were unfaithful to Him.

- b. Judgment illustrates with great clarity the stupidity of sin.

"Sin is always folly, and the sinner always a _____, for he secures the great evil of punishment in exchange for the small good of gratification, and therefore always makes a fool's bargain." - T.V. Moore

- c. Wicked leadership is God's _____ on a wicked nation.
- d. Internal _____ among a people is a further evidence of God's judgment.

"Union of feeling in a people is a mark of the favor of God, and disunion a token of His wrath, and usually a beginning of the downfall of a people. May this token of God's wrath long be averted from the people of these United States!" - T.V. Moore (_____)

- e. Even in times of great apostasy and rebellion, that calls for God's judgment, the Lord keeps for Himself a _____ that He carefully watches over.

"There was a small remnant, according to the election of grace, (that Christ) had a special regard for; and whom He _____ by the Word and ordinances with Himself, the bread of life; and with the discoveries of His love, and with the covenant of grace, its blessings and promises, the sure mercies of David." - John Gill
