THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

Scripture Reading

Hebrews 10:1–18

EXPLAINING HEBREWS 10:1–18

1. It's impossible for animal sacrifices to take away sin (Hebrews 10:1–4).
2. Jesus's single sacrifice of himself on the cross can do what other sacrifices couldn't—actually take away sin (Hebrews 10:5–10).
3. Jesus's one sacrifice ends the need for any further animal sacrifices (Hebrews 10:11–18).

THE MAIN POINT OF HEBREWS 10:1–18

Jesus dealt with life's greatest problem and offers to all life's greatest good;
so follow him, and never turn back,
no matter how hard life gets.

APPLYING HEBREWS 10:1–18 TO LIFE

1. Don't go to a church unless it preaches full forgiveness of sin through Jesus.

1. Don't go to a church unless it preaches full forgiveness of sin through Jesus.
2. Don't go to a church that downplays or redefines sin.

APPLYING HEBREWS 10:1–18 TO LIFE

1. Don't go to a church unless it preaches full forgiveness of sin through Jesus.
2. Don't go to a church that downplays or redefines sin.
3. Keep life's greatest good (God) and life's greatest problem (sin) at the center of your heart.

“We say we want to have a renewal of character in our day, but we don’t really know what we ask for. To have a renewal of character is to have a renewal of a creedal order that constrains, limits, binds, obligates and compels. The price is too high to pay. We want character but without unyielding conviction; we want strong morality but without the emotional burden of guilt or shame; we want virtue but without particular moral justifications that invariably offend; we want good without having to name evil....”

— James Davison Hunter, The Death of Character
