Out of Egypt to Meet with God

An Angel Before You

Exodus 23:20-22

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty God of heaven & earth, all powerful, strong and good. Perfect God of all knowledge, light and wisdom. Eternal God everywhere present, abiding and everlasting in your steadfast love and faithfulness. Lord, we confess our weakness, our ignorance and our loneliness this morning. These undo us and reveal our humanity and your sufficiency. So we come this morning, Father, to ask for your strength to hold us up, your wisdom to give us direction and your presence to bring guard and comfort us all the way to the home you have prepared for us in heaven. May our hope for heaven stir our faith this morning in Christ, His life, His death, resurrection and His interceding for us even now at the your right hand. May this hope also grant us a love for one another as saints that we might stir each other up toward faith and good works and glorify our Father in heaven. Come, now and cause us to behold Jesus Christ our hope of glory and our joy forevermore. Amen & Amen
