If you can either help us move or assist in preparing the new building, please contact Jim Moline (713-922-3557), who is coordinating the logistics.

Psalm 99:6–9 Tune: Newington, #93

Do not even such things as are most bitter to the flesh, tend to awaken Christians to faith and prayer,
to a sight of the emptiness of this world,
and the fadingness of the best it yields?

Doth not God by these things (oft-times)
call our sins to remembrance,
and provoke us to amendment of life?

How then can we be offended at things
by which we reap so much good? . . .

Therefore if mine enemy hunger,
let me feed him,
if he thirst,
let me give him drink.

Now in order to do this,

- ① We must see good in that, in which other men can see none.
- ② We must pass by those injuries that other men would revenge.
- ③ We must show we have grace, and that we are made to bear what other men are not acquainted with.
- ④ Many of our graces are kept alive, by those very things that are the death of other men's souls.

John Bunyan (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
