“WHY” questions from the congregation.

- I never noticed before that our crosses are plain. The Catholic crosses show Jesus. I was told they don't believe He rose again. Is that true?
- How do you run from what's inside your head?
- Why do good people/Christians die young?
- Why does evil in the world appear to be growing? Is it truly the beginning of the end of times?
- Why do Christians cremate themselves? Aren't our bodies holy?
- Why do we believe the Bible was written by God? Darlene
- How are the people who lived during Old Testament times saved as they would not have known Jesus?
- Why does God condemn so many people to eternal torture?
- Why, if someone has a terrible past, like they are a murderer or something, that in their final moments, if they pledge the rest of their life to God, they get straight into heaven?
- What about people who have never heard of God, do they go to heaven?
- Why doesn't God kill Satan?
- Can God create a rock so heavy He can't lift it?
- Why doesn't God come down from heaven and show everyone He's real?
- Why does God let Satan have so much pull on our lives?
- Where is Jesus now – is He still just chilling in heaven?
- Is homosexuality actually against the Bible?
- If someone prays to God, why doesn't He always answer? Because if you're making an effort to pray, and you occasionally ask for something, and nothing ever happens, it makes you doubt if you're praying to anything.
- Why are so many babies born with cancer, when their parent's diet are clean eaters?
