

I Sermon Notes

Hope and Comfort in the Believer's War

Rom. 7:25-8:2

The "marriage is hard" perspective is real, but it is not the whole _____

This is what Paul is doing in Rom. 7:14-25. It is _____, but not the whole story.

The "marriage is awesome" perspective is real, but it is not the whole _____

So far, Paul has focused on the difficulty of the Christian _____

We never live up to the enormous obligation we have to live a _____ of obedience and gratitude

The more light he has, the more clearly he sees his own sin and how far he is from the

_____ he is called to.

Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. This is the answer to the _____

Paul knows that deliverance has come, and deliverance will _____

Paul is bringing together the _____ perspectives.

I myself serve the law of God with my _____

But with my flesh I serve the law of _____ Christian life is great. Christian life is hard. Both are _____ Struggling, conflicted Christian, what a wonderful deliverance awaits us; warfare in the meantime, but _____ condemnation in Jesus Christ.

No condemnation today, tomorrow, and no condemnation on the _____

