Well, it's good to be here tonight, friends, and I have a message you're not gonna want to miss. It's a timely message for a desperate day. We live in a day where all of society is merely a preview to hell as this generation is full of God-hating men and women who love their sins and are consumed by their lusts as they crawl over each other's back on a mad dash to hell and call themselves Christians. Sexual perversion is legalized and promoted by a nation that has legislated God out of the country and let the devil have full control. We have moral chaos in society and spiritual chaos in the church as all the lines between right and wrong and good and evil are blurred by people intoxicated with pride and burning in their lusts.

This is the generation right before the appearance of antichrist and all hell is breaking loose and that's the titles of my message this evening, friends, "All Hell Is Breaking Loose!" It's breaking loose upon a land under divine judgment that sits on the verge of utter annihilation and nobody seems to care. The worst thing about this sad and tragic scenario is the reality of it and the absence of the preaching of the true Gospel in the land. A little truth with a lot of omission is what comes out of our pulpits today. A compromised church can't preach anything but a compromised Gospel and nobody can be saved by believing a fact about something. You can make your decision for Jesus today and get your free ticket to heaven stamped and join the church and find your place to sit in the sanctuary each Sunday while you draw closer and closer to a Christ-less eternity in a hell full of smoke and fire and heat and darkness!

Well, that's my introduction tonight, friends, on a very serious message on the solemn subject of salvation. If you are unprepared for eternity, where will you spend eternity? We have a land full of churches today who have no fear of God, no awareness of God, and no God-consciousness in their daily lives. It's just death and deadness everywhere as we spend hours discussing creeds and dogmas while a nation goes to hell while we talk theology and play our little games. Is there anybody out there who sees what I'm describing here or is it blind eyes and deaf ears that my message falls upon?

I'm here to warn you, friend, that if you are not truly a saved individual who is washed in Christ's blood and born from above, then you can take your church membership to hell with you when you die when you leave this world by death. If you don't repent, you will sure go to hell.

The apostate church has told a generation of people that all you have to do to be saved is to only believe in Jesus and accept him as your personal Savior, and this perverted Gospel has produced a generation of church members who hate holiness, are strangers to the Holy Spirit, and who have never experienced change through regeneration. But before you can be saved, you must hear the bad news about yourself before you can accept the good news of salvation and Christ Jesus, and the bad news about yourself, friend, is pretty bad. In Romans, man is described in the worse way, "As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one. There is none that understandeth. There is none that seek after God."

The condition of man in his nature estate is described in the book of Job by the following description, "How much more abominable and filthy is man which drinketh iniquity like water." That's you, friend, if you are a stranger to Christ. You sin all you want to and see nothing wrong with it. You rebel against the rule and reign of God in your life. You don't want God to control you. You think Jesus is a killjoy. You want things your way and on your terms and that includes your religion. God to you is merely a facilitator for you to sin more. In your natural condition, you are lost and without hope under the condemnation of a holy God and awaiting sentencing to be carried out against you at a future judgment where your sins will rise up before you in eternity like specters in a haunted castle! Your only hope is in the shed blood of Christ Jesus.

As a God-called preacher, it is my duty to warn you of your great danger of dying in your sins and being sent to a devil's hell. I will do everything I can while I still have breath in me to lay open to this generation its awful, sinful condition in the sight of a holy God. You must get to Christ, friend, and get a saving interest in him. Hear me now: who is Jesus? I know you've heard of him. Jesus came down here so we can go up there. Listen, friend, my Bible says that a guilty sinner has one thing to do and that is to repent. The way of salvation comes by exercising repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you will, friend, come with me, come with me, please, friends, in your mind's eye. Come with me. Walk with me, friend, to a hill outside the city of Jerusalem called Calvary. There stands a cross where the bloodstained Savior from sin, the man Jesus who is the Son of God, Jesus came into this world doing good, healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, yet what happened? Do you know what happened to Jesus? Do you know, friend? He was arrested and men cried, "Away with him!" And they nailed him to a cross. They drove nails into his innocent hands. They pounded them, hammered them into his tender quivering feet. They nailed up the Son of God and crucified him as a common criminal. First, he was stripped naked and beaten. They made a crown of thorns and stuck it on his head. Then they whipped him and spit on him. They nailed him up on that bloody cross.

Look at that man on the cross, friend, do you see that man? Do you see that man hanging on the cross? He writhes and wriggles in pain and suffering. Why? To be my sin-bearer. To be my sin-substitute. He takes on him the curse and wrath of the Father so I won't have to. He died for me. That's the only way I can get the stain of sin cleansed away.

In Revelation 1:5 it says, "Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood." In Hebrews we read of Jesus as our sacrifice and substitute for sin, "But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God." That's what Jesus did, friend. He is the friend of sinners. No matter how big a sinner you are, you can come to him. He will accept you if you come to him. He suffered and bled and died on that cross for sin so you won't have to pay the penalty for sin in a devil's hell. He was buried in another man's tomb. He was resurrected by the power of God and he rose again. He appeared to his disciples and he ascended back into the very heaven he stepped out of. Oh, he sits now at the right hand of the Father on a heavenly throne ruling in authority and he earned that right by way of a bloody cross. Do you hear me, friend? A bloody cross. The old hymn says, "What can wash away my sins? Nothing but the blood of Jesus."

Oh, friends, I'm gonna wrap up this meeting tonight, friends, with a time for you to get serious with God and to seek him for the grace repentance. If you want to be free from the stain of sin, you must repent and believe on Jesus Christ. Listen to me as I say to you, friend, how God's love flows out to you. That's a promise on the word of God, friends. Listen, the cross is the place where wicked men sought to get rid of Jesus but by his death it becomes the place where his saving power flows out to all who come in repentance, who come in repentance confessing they are sinners and own him as their Savior and Lord.

I'm gonna close our time tonight, friends, by singing a hymn. I want you to come to Christ and believe on him. He is the only remedy and refuge for sin. He can wash your sins away, friend. There's enough saving power in the Gospel to save you. There is enough cleansing power in the blood of the Lamb to clean you. The slain Christ who loved me and gave himself for me, I find salvation when Christ's life is laid down and applied to me so that when God looks at me, he says, "When I see the blood, when I see the blood! Herein is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

Listen to me, friend, hear me now: if the Spirit of God has been dealing with your soul tonight, don't delay in this land of death. You could die tonight and make your bed in hell tonight if you die outside of Christ's saving blood. There's enough power there, friend, to save you. God can save even you but you must come to him and believe on him. Christ has a promise, "He that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." You come as I sing, friend. Get serious with God, friend, and come to Christ Jesus to save you from the penalty of sin. He can give you eternal life. You come to him, friend. You come now as I sing.

"Would you be free from your burden of sin?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Would you o'er evil a victory win?
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Would you be whiter, much whiter than snow?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Sin-stains are lost in its life-giving flow,
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the precious blood of the Lamb.

Would you be whiter, much whiter than snow?
There's power in the blood, power in the blood;
Sin-stains are lost in its life-giving flow,
There's wonderful power in the blood.

There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the blood of the Lamb;
There is power, power, wonder-working power,
In the precious blood of the Lamb."
