

The Olivet Discourse

“Signs of the End” (Luke 21:5-11)

Jesus will return at just the right time to fulfill the promises of God’s Word.

1. God will not tolerate spiritual arrogance indefinitely (21:5-6).

- The disciples pointed out the beauty of the Temple—external appearances don’t always correspond with inner realities (21:5).
- Jesus predicted the destruction of the Temple—empty ritualism always forfeits God’s blessing (2:6).

2. Before Jesus returns, there will be an increasing level of social disorder (21:7-9).

- It’s appropriate to look for signs of the end of the age (21:7).
- We need to be careful not to be deceived by false teachers (21:8).
- We need to be careful not to become unsettled by civil unrest (21:9).

3. Before Jesus returns, there will be an intensifying of global distress (21:10-11).

- When we see intensifying international conflict, we can be sure that the end is approaching (21:10).
- When we see intensifying natural disasters, we can be sure that the end is approaching (21:11).
