

THE HEAVENS DECLARE THE GLORY OF GOD

Text: Psalm 19:1 - How do the heavens declare the glory of God?

I. The first way the heavens declare the glory of God

_____.

- A. How many stars are there in the visible universe?
- B. What's the biggest star that has been discovered so far?
- C. How far away is the closest star and how long would it take us to get there with current technology?
- D. Why did He create this vast universe of stars?

II. The second way the heavens declare the glory of God is through their _____.

- A. The Sun is a _____.
- B. It accounts for more than _____ of the mass of our Solar System and provides all the energy we need for life here on Earth.
- C. Why did God warn His people about the danger of worshipping the sun?
- D. What was the light God created on Day One of Creation? _____

E. According to secular scientists, where did the sun come from?

1. The first difficulty with this secular fairy tale is that _____ have never been observed because they are supposed to occur over many millions of years.

2. The second problem is that _____, they get hotter and the pressure increases.

3. The third problem is the _____.

4. The fourth problem is that this secular tale

_____.

5. The fifth problem is that the sun is

_____.

6. The last problem is called the

_____.

F. When Psalm 19 describes the sun, we know that it is using poetic language. What did King David understand about the sun?

1.

2.

3.

III . The third way the heavens declare the glory of God is through _____.

A. Where do secular scientists say the moon came from?

1. The _____ theory
2. The _____ theory
3. The _____ theory
4. The _____ theory

God created the moon on the _____ day of Creation.

B. The Bible gives us important information as to the Creator's purposes for the moon.

1. The first God-intended purpose for the moon is that it would act as a _____.
2. It is critical to _____.
3. Is there an effect of moonlight on people? _____
4. Genesis 1 tells us that the moon was created to _____.
5. God also made the moon for the purpose of _____ . How?

The sun, the moon, the stars — these celestial marvels reflect a portion of the Creator's majestic artistry. But even in the midst of this breathtaking display, we are called to consider a light that outshines them all: _____