

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Sermon Notes for Kids

Date _____

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.

Title _____

Text _____

As we read and wrestle with our Bibles, there are areas of

Can I fully comprehend the Trinity or two natures of Christ?

Can I understand and embrace what the Bible says about them, even though I cannot fully comprehend them? _____

Must I persevere, hold fast, firm until the end if I am to be saved?

Will I be preserved by God's grace firm to the end and be saved?

Hang on to the end, serious consequences if you _____;

Hang on the end because God is faithful and keeps His

_____.

"Hold fast" is to continue to believe, with the implication of acting in accordance with such _____.

"Hope" is the sum of God's promises for the present and the future, secured for us through the priestly sacrifice and ministry of

_____.

"The confession of hope = the hope we _____

How we hold fast: Without _____

This is a call to faithful, steadfast endurance in holding firm to our Christ-centered _____.

The Bible never tells us, "Just ____ _____. It always gives reasons, ground and motives, and in so doing, it gives power to our _____ so that we obey.

Calvin said, "If God makes no promises, no one can _____."

Faithful = Trustworthy, dependable, _____

Hold on with enduring faith, hold on when you feel weak, hold on when you feel like giving up, hold on when things seem

_____. Why? Because He is _____.