

2 Samuel 11-12; Psalm 51

The Broken Heart

Proposition: God wants us to be broken over our sin (Ps. 51:16-17)

We evidence a hard heart when:

1. We ignore the simple warnings that God graciously gives us (2 Sam. 11:3)
2. We use people to help us sin (2 Sam. 11:4)
3. When our sin is more important than the damage it inflicts (2 Sam. 11:14-17)
4. We pretend to care (2 Sam. 11:18-25)
5. We judge the sin of others more harshly than our own (2 Sam. 12:5-6)
6. We become entitled (2 Sam. 12:7-8)
7. We ignore God's revealed will in Scripture (2 Sam. 12:9)

We evidence a broken heart when:

1. We desperately seek forgiveness (Ps. 51:1-2)
2. We are willing to confess (Ps. 51:3-6)
3. We seek restored fellowship with God (Ps. 51:7-9)
4. We fight our sin through renewal (Ps. 51:10-12)
5. We testify to others of God's grace (Ps. 51:13-15, 18-19)

2 Samuel 11-12; Psalm 51

The Broken Heart

Proposition: God wants us to be broken over our sin (Ps. 51:16-17)

We evidence a hard heart when:

1. We ignore the simple warnings that God graciously gives us (2 Sam. 11:3)
2. We use people to help us sin (2 Sam. 11:4)
3. When our sin is more important than the damage it inflicts (2 Sam. 11:14-17)
4. We pretend to care (2 Sam. 11:18-25)
5. We judge the sin of others more harshly than our own (2 Sam. 12:5-6)
6. We become entitled (2 Sam. 12:7-8)
7. We ignore God's revealed will in Scripture (2 Sam. 12:9)

We evidence a broken heart when:

1. We desperately seek forgiveness (Ps. 51:1-2)
2. We are willing to confess (Ps. 51:3-6)
3. We seek restored fellowship with God (Ps. 51:7-9)
4. We fight our sin through renewal (Ps. 51:10-12)
5. We testify to others of God's grace (Ps. 51:13-15, 18-19)