SUNDAY EVENING

1. Why would it be that Philip and so many seek for a sign that they might believe?
2. What does Jesus say should be the case instead of “seeing is believing”?
3. What was another reason why the disciples did not have clear and proper views of the Father?
4. How does John 1:18 and Hebrews 1:3 relate to what Jesus is saying in John 14?
5. Who are the three Persons of the one Godhead? What is each of their primary works?
6. Describe something of the character of Christ as we read of it in the Gospels and then meditate upon the truth that Jesus said, “he who has seen me has seen the Father.”
7. How can we have a growing understanding of who Christ and the Father are?
8. Read the rest of chapter 14, and 15 and 16, and try to draw some thoughts from it as they relate to the teaching of Jesus here in v. 9.
9. For what have we been created and what are we all “seeing” by nature?
10. Why is there so little “seeing” of God today, even by His own people?
