

How the World Thinks:
The Worldview Behind the Moral Revolution

- I. Personhood theory comes from historical development
 - A. Modern thinking esteems natural order

 - B. Postmodern thinking esteems personal values

- II. Personhood theory leads to critical applications
 - A. The fetus is just a collection of cells

 - B. The person develops at a later point

- III. Personhood theory fails under biblical scrutiny
 - A. All creation is the handiwork of God

 - B. Our redemption includes the whole person

How the World Thinks:
The Worldview Behind the Moral Revolution

- I. Personhood theory comes from historical development
 - A. Modern thinking esteems natural order

 - B. Postmodern thinking esteems personal values

- II. Personhood theory leads to critical applications
 - A. The fetus is just a collection of cells

 - B. The person develops at a later point

- III. Personhood theory fails under biblical scrutiny
 - A. All creation is the handiwork of God

 - B. Our redemption includes the whole person