

Week 3—Revisiting:

“Unwavering: Sizing Up Our Challenges”

1 Samuel 17

If our spiritual adversary is anything like Goliath; what conclusions can we draw about the one who seeks to destroy us?

2. The next anointed king is certainly being tested. God tests, but He doesn't tempt (Jas. 1:13-15). How is God's love and His testing in our lives synonymous?
3. David has been victorious over a lion, a bear and now Goliath. What is the next challenge for him to overcome? This challenge isn't physical and it comes through the people of Israel.
4. What childlike qualities does David possess that we, as adults, should certainly maintain or re-acquire?
5. David holds the Philistine's head long after the victory on the battlefield. This “trophy of grace” can remind us of the need for at least two things. What are they?
