

Overcoming Personal Struggles - Week 4

The Dynamic Heart in Context

Introduction

The Heart Responds to God

The Heart Responds to Self

The Heart Responds to Others

The Heart Responds to Circumstances

Reflective Questions

1. What do my responses to my difficulties reveal about my functional theology?
2. In thinking about the contexts of self, others, and circumstances, in what ways have they shaped me toward an intentional movement toward a definable Godward orientation? Meaning, how have they drawn me closer to Christ based on clear biblical truth?
3. In what ways have these influences shaped me to a more man-centered, culturally defined way of thinking about life?

Hint: if you aren't able to articulate clear biblical truths that these contexts have moved you toward, it is likely that they have moved you in the opposite direction.
