

“One Nation, One King, One God!”

Ezekiel 37:15-28

- c. God Himself will dwell with Israel and make His _____ in their midst (37:26b-28).

Deuteronomy 12:13-14; Romans 11:12; Ezekiel 10:18-19

- I. Ezekiel is to take two sticks, write _____ on one (to symbolize the two tribes of Judah) and write _____ on another (to symbolize the 10 tribes of Israel) and to hold or bind them together as though they were one stick in his hand (37:15-17).

- a. When people inquire of the symbolism, Ezekiel is to declare the reunification of Israel as _____ nation (37:18-19).

Genesis 35:19-22; 49:3-4; 5-7; 1 Chronicles 5:1-2

- b. Israel will be gathered from dispersion among the nations and God will _____ them (37:20-23).

1 Kings 12:26-31; 2 Corinthians 6:14; Proverbs 12:11; 10:4; 1 John 4:7-9

- II. God’s promises Israel many benefits in His kingdom.

- a. Consistent with God’s promises to David, _____ king, David, will reign over them and Israel will obey God’s statutes (37:24).
- b. God will cause Israel to _____ in the land in peace (37:25-26a).